ENP at Neuroscience 2016 in San Diego

For the fourth consecutive year, Aviesan and the ITMO Neurosciences Neurologie Psychiatrie et Cognition, the Société française des Neurosciences, and the ENP with the support of the Inserm-USA Office, and in partnership with the Mission for Science and Technology Technology of the French Embassy in the United States, held the "Neuroscience in France: from Education to Research" booth to promote research centers and doctoral training schools in the field of Neuroscience in France.

We received 750 visitors, mostly from North American institutions, but also from Europe and Asia. This represents a 20% increase in attendance compared to 2015 and represents the highest number of visits since the booth was set up, reflecting the internationally recognized excellence of French neuroscience and thanks to the existence of PhD training in English, such as the ENP GP offered by the Ecole des Neurosciences in Paris.
